Dear Parents/Carers,

Next week, our children will be enjoying our Book Week in school. On Monday, all teachers are swapping classes for the morning and have chosen a book to share with a different class, where they will complete activities linked to this book. The children and teachers are all looking forward to this swap.

During the week, children will have a strong focus on reading and will have time to read by themselves, to each other and as a class. They will be reading in other places in the school including our Sensory Garden—let's hope it does not rain!

On Wednesday, most classes are visiting Rainham Library for a storytelling session and we are all looking forward to dressing up as a book character on Thursday. We will also be having a 'Book Giveaway' on Thursday after school on the playground, for children to come and choose a free preloved book.

We are inviting all parents into school on Friday 8th March for a 'Stay and Read' session with your child. We are looking forward to seeing as many of you as possible then. If you have more than one child in the school, you can use the hall to hear your children read.

There is a competition running during the week to design a new book gift card. We will be sending the best designs into the national Book Week competition.

We will make sure we keep you up to date with how Book Week is going through Class Dojo pages during the week.

On Thursday our Shakespeare after school club will be performing Midsummer Night's Dream at the Woodville Theatre. They have been rehearsing this play as a group since September—we are all looking forward to the performance.

Once again, thank you for your continued support.

Headteacher

Just a reminder that if you ever have any questions or concerns you can contact staff on Dojo to make an appointment to discuss them.

PROUD MOMENT...

A huge well done to all of Badgers Class, who had their class assembly this week. They shared all of their learning with a very detailed description of the digestive system! They also sang a beautiful song and added signing to it. Well done Badgers!

WALT: Write a diary entry conveying emotions.

Dear Diary,

I am writing this as I sit behind the front door sweating to death about what has happened. I have never felt so much negative emotion in one go. I had been taking the student home after collecting our weekly ration when I heard a big racket. People were crowding the street outside our home. As I started looking up the road, I noticed a pale-green truck with smoke coming out. It must have broken. 2 Soldiers were working underneath the bonnet. Sprinting from the back was a young boy <sup>younger than</sup> ~~no~~ older than my daughter, Violet.

The ~~stuff~~ stuff that happened made me feel unwell. Another two soldiers hopped out of the truck. One had a gigantic gun, and both were facing threats at the poor boy. In front of the boy was the motor with his ~~only~~ Nazi badge. I loathed that man. I was surprised I ~~could~~ <sup>couldn't</sup> hold myself from smacking him in the face. And what I did next was the biggest regret of my life.

I had looked away. My heart was hurting. I couldn't help it anymore. I cried. And multiple emotions burst from my chest: ~~I felt~~ <sup>I felt</sup> ~~it was~~ <sup>it was</sup> ~~so~~ <sup>so</sup> ~~bad~~ <sup>bad</sup> ~~to~~ <sup>to</sup> ~~see~~ <sup>see</sup> ~~him~~
